

Merrimack College's Giving Societies recognize and thank its most generous and loyal donors, those that exude what it means to be Merrimack Proud. When you join a Giving Society, you unite with a group of individuals who are an essential part of Merrimack's family of supporters. Making an annual gift at one of the Giving Society levels allows you to play an important role in the financial health of Merrimack College and makes a meaningful statement about how much you value a Merrimack College education.

Giving Society membership is renewable annually and is based on annual gifts made or facilitated by an individual and his/her spouse. Corporate matching gifts count toward membership when received within the same fiscal year as your gift.

By becoming a member of a Giving Society, you are saying "I am Merrimack Proud." It is a statement of belief in this great College, in what it means to you, and in the value of a Merrimack education.

Thank you for being Merrimack Proud.

Merrimack College Giving Societies

Be Merrimack Proud

Merrimack
COLLEGE

Merrimack College Giving Societies are named to honor our esteemed Augustinian history and foundation.

It's all because of you

We are "Merrimack Proud" because of you. Your gift supports opportunities and experiences that prepare students to make their mark on the world—from internships, research, and service learning, to athletics, study abroad, and personal advising. Because of you, Merrimack College is able to provide scholarships, recruit excellent faculty, and maintain its impressive rankings. Also, because of you, our students say their campus feels like home. The generosity of our alumni and friends makes so much possible for our students and sustains critical funding for day-to-day operations of the College.

We can do it all with gifts like yours. Thank you.
