

UNARMED CIVILIAN PROTECTION

This is an exciting online course on Unarmed Civilian Protection (UCP) taught by the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) and Nonviolent Peaceforce.

Course Hours and Tuition

This four-credit course is completed in seven weeks. Tuition is $1,420 for a 4 credit course or $715 for a non-credit course with a certificate of completion.

Start Date

September 18, 2017

New sessions starting throughout the year.

Register at bit.ly/UCP-register.

www.merrimack.edu/unarmedcivilianprotection

What is Unarmed Civilian Protection?

Unarmed Civilian Protection is the practice of civilians protecting civilians in situations of violent conflict, imminent violence, and post-crisis situations. The practice of UCP is nonviolent and nonpartisan.

Proactive engagement, monitoring, relationship building, and capacity development are used: to prevent violence and reduce the impact of violence; to increase the safety and security of civilians threatened by violence; and to strengthen local peace infrastructures.

www.merrimack.edu/unarmedcivilianprotection Contact: professionalstudies@merrimack.edu | 978-837-3563