DMSE Sports Classic

Join us to run the beautiful and historic streets of Andover and North Andover. The DMSE Sports Classic (formerly known as the Runner's World Classic) will feature a start and finish on the campus of Merrimack College for a weekend of running. Founded and managed by Dave McGillivray '76 Sports Enterprises, there's a race for runners of all levels and for the entire family.

With separate courses for the kid's fun run, a 5K, 10K, and half marathon, each showcases a traditional New England road race in "The Town for All Seasons" — the beautiful town of North Andover.

Young Alumni Spotlight: Elie Ata '12

"I remember and live Merrimack College's mission - enlighten minds, engage hearts, and empower lives - not only did I use it for my own benefit, I use it to enlighten, engage, and empower patients to be advocates for their own health." - Elie Ata '12

As an undergraduate, Elie joined the Merrimack Community as an honor's student, and through this program was able to work with the Corpus Christi House in Lawrence, Mass. This was Elie's first exposure to terminal and chronically ill patients, as he helped translate paperwork and explain the nature of their disease to patients.
