

MERRIMACK COLLEGE

Young Alumni Spotlight: Chloe Rothman '15

"There are numerous skills that I have gained over the years from being a part of the Merrimack College community that has shaped me to be the person I am today, but the combination of community service opportunities was what amplified my passion for helping others less fortunate than me." - Chloe Rothman '15

Chloe acknowledges programming such as Austin Scholars, Mack Gives Back, and Habitat for Humanity for her passion in community service. She also commends her experience with the women's basketball team, where she learned invaluable soft skills that she now uses in her professional career.

Share Your Experiences, Help A Young Warrior

The Warrior Network is preparing for the academic year and is accepting alumni applications. This mentor program is open to all students, with special focus on juniors. Commitment is manageable with your own professional schedule.

Think about your own time on campus -- could you have benefited from a mentor? Any and all support is helpful to our students who are eager to learn from your experiences.

An Update on Together for Good: The Campaign for Merrimack College

Campaign Leadership Feature: Richard H'15 and Susanna Gallant

"Together for Good symbolizes the connections between the community, faculty, students, alumni, trustees, and the president. Merrimack has created a culture where everyone is connected, and we're all working together to achieve a positive outcome. Together, we're committed to Merrimack's progress and development. Since the beginning, it's been exciting to see the College grow and provide so many services to so many people. I look forward to what the future holds." - Richard H'15 and Susanna Gallant

To date, Together for Good has raised more than $38 million toward our $50 million goal.
