Announcing New Vice Provost - Dr. Julie Fitzmaurice

We are excited to announce that Dr. Julie Fitzmaurice, Ph.D. has joined the Provost's Office as Vice Provost. In this new role, Julie will focus on strategic planning, hiring planning, and strategic budgeting to advance the college's academic agenda. She brings broad experience as faculty member in marketing and as a seasoned senior administrator, having served as the associate Dean in the Girard School of Business for seven years, and, more recently, as Interim Dean. Please join me in welcoming Julie to her new role. We look forward to her contributions and leadership.

CITI Training for IRB

The Merrimack College Institutional Review Board (IRB) would like to remind you that CITI (Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative) training is now required for all faculty and students interested in getting certification to work on human subjects. Beginning in September 2018, we will no longer accept NIH training certification for any research requiring IRB review.

Why the transition to CITI? CITI training is a nationally recognized human subjects research and compliance training program. CITI provides a comprehensive and holistic training certification that is more widely recognized and accepted than our previous NIH training.

If you are not familiar with the CITI Program site, you can click here for a quick tutorial.

If you are familiar with the CITI Program site, you can click here. Please remember to change your affiliation to Merrimack College if you registered while at another institution.

Blackboard Changes for All Fall Classes 2018

There are important changes coming that you will need to know for all of your fall classes. The College is in the process of updating Blackboard to the new mobile-friendly version called Ultra. This transition will occur in stages, beginning fall 2018. In addition to a new navigation bar on all course shells, faculty may also opt-in to the new full-course Ultra version this summer. To prepare, please review the LMS updates and changes here: Blackboard updates. To determine if you are a good candidate for Ultra right now, please take this Blackboard usage survey and the CETL will contact you to provide next steps.

Get Ready for Blackboard Ultra!

Consider signing up for one or both sessions while in the convenience of your home office. Sessions are held via Collaborate, Merrimack's new web conferencing tool. Both sessions are led by Janet Syed, CETL Associate Director/Instructional Designer.

The primary goal is to give first-year students an opportunity to meet their primary advisor earlier. Last year’s inaugural event was met with resounding praise.

Faculty who have first-year student advisees will meet with a group of their advisees. The meeting will take place in the faculty office - if the group is small enough - or in a classroom. For more information on how this serves as an opportunity for advisors, visit the Second Tuesday First-Year Student Advising page.
