Major: Psychology

Minors: English

Bio:

Hi! My name is Sarah, otherwise known as “Dobbs”. I am a psychology major, with the goal of one day becoming a child psychopathologist. I am very involved with the arts here on campus, working with the VPA and Onstagers to put on various plays multiple times a year. When I am not in the Rogers Center (rarely), I spend my time annoying my roommates, playing ukulele, talking about life with Dr. McWhorter, or grabbing a mini pizza in the library. I have a personal goal to make friends with as many people at MC as possible, so please help me and reach out! I am here if you need any advice or even if you just need to rant. I look forward to getting to know you!
