In this inspiring and provocative memoir about a young black man, Caylin Moore tells the against-all-odds story of his rise from racial injustice and cruel poverty in gang-ridden Los Angeles to academic success at the University of Oxford, with hope as his compass.

Friday, February 19, 4:00-5:00 p.m
Zoom Link
For more information email diversity@merrimack.edu