

Social Justice Month 2021

Unity in Diversity - April 7 & 8

The President's Initiative on DEI has organized two full days of events to promote diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice.
Click here to see the full schedule.

All Month Long

Social Justice Stations of the Cross

Austin Scholars have created an original Stations of the Cross installation, providing an opportunity for the entire Merrimack community to reflect on contemporary social justice issues in light of Jesus' death and resurrection.

Merrimack College Labyrinth

Tuesday, March 30

National Health Care Policy: Private and Public Options

Discussion of current health disparities in the US, the impact of the Affordable Care Act, and options before the Biden Administration.

4 P.M. - 6 P.M.
Click here to join

Tuesday, April 6

Addressing Food Security in Our Communities

A panel of community leaders addressing food security

10 A.M. - 11:30 A.M.
Click here to join

Monday, April 12 -
Friday April 16

Merrimack College Clothesline Project Annual Display

8 A.M. - 5 P.M.
McQuade Library
Courtyard

Thursday, April 15

Film Discussion: On the Basis of Sex

Students will be given access to stream the film before this student-led discussion about the film.

5 P.M. - 6 P.M.
Click here to join

Friday, April 16

Latino City: Immigration and Urban Crisis in Lawrence, Massachusetts, 1945- 2000 by Llana Barber

4 P.M. - 5 P.M.
Click here to join

Monday, April 19

Serena Parekh No Refuge: Ethics & The Global Refugee Crisis

Serena Parekh will discuss her new book, No Refuge: Ethics and the Global Refugee Crisis.

11 A.M. - 12:20 P.M.
Click here to join

Tuesday, April 20

The Art of Resistance

Program Director, Amaryllis Lopez, will discuss how Elevated Thought addresses forms of systemic injustice through creative youth development, beautification projects, public outreach, and paid opportunities for marginalized creatives.

Noon - 1 P.M.
Click here to join

Tuesday, April 20

Assessing the Green New Deal

Discussing the current state of the Anthropocene, global and national policy options to address a degrading environment.

4 P.M. - 6 P.M.
Click here to join

Wednesday, April 21

Social Justice and Civic Engagement: Pathways Toward Action

Learn about ways to connect your social justice commitments to action through civic engagement.

Noon - 1:15 P.M.
Click here to join

Wednesday, April 21

Living Out Loud: Storytelling for Social Change Presents: Virtual Open Mic Night

5:30 P.M. - 6:30 P.M.
Click here to join

Friday, April 23

National Day of Silence

GSA invites you to take a vow of silence with us in solidarity for LGBTQ+ youth who are continually silenced due to bullying, name-calling, and harassment.

[Click here to
take the pledge](#)

Wednesday, April 28

Documentary: What Doesn't Kill Me: Domestic Violence and the Battle for Custody

11 A.M. - 12:30 P.M.
Click here to join

Friday, April 30

Holi

Join us in celebrating Holi, a Hindu festival also known as "the festival of colors"

2 P.M. - 4:30 P.M.
Monican Court

"You have to act as if it were possible to radically transform the world. And you have to do it all the time." - Angela Davis

For more information,
contact:

socialjusticeprogram@merrimack.edu.